

I agree with the FISTS petition and would like to keep the Morse requirement. I feel it is an essential skill that all radio amateurs should have. Although it may be old, it is still a vital easy way to communicate especially in times of emergency.